Terms and conditions

- Unforeseen circumstances, such as weather, flood, drought, strikes and canal closures, can occasionally cause cruise routes and/or excursions to be changed. We are not held responsible for these occurrences. A change in route or excursion will not be accepted as a cause for cancellation of a charter. An alternative and accessible route/excursion will be chosen.
- The owners and booking agents assume no responsibility for a guest's illness, injury or death while aboard the barge or its vehicle. Insurance against personal accident and/or loss of personal effects is not included in the charter price and no responsibility can be accepted for accidents or losses. Guests are strongly advised to insure themselves and their belongings.
- Every care has been taken to ensure the accuracy of barge accommodation descriptions. The plans contained herein are for information only and may be altered periodically to improve comfort and livability. We reserve the right at all time to cancel any booking, or portion thereof, on refund of the appropriate value paid by the guest for the cancelled portion of the charter without further liability.
- A 30% deposit is required at the time of initial booking. This deposit is non-refundable. The balance will be due 12 weeks prior to the charter date. Bookings made within 12 weeks of departure must be paid in full at time of initial booking. We strongly recommend purchasing trip cancellation insurance at time of initial payment.

On behalf of all persons named in this document, I understand and accept the barge owners'/operators' terms and conditions for this cruise. I understand that unless the terms and conditions state otherwise, all deposits are non-refundable – and any changes may be subject to an additional fee.
